The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 3, containing the entries for musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions, is issued at monthly intervals in twelve numbers each year, and is followed by a complete index for the year. The general arrangement is an alphabet of the titles of the musical works with certain exceptions explained hereafter. The arrangement is alphabetical under the first word of the title (except "a," "an," or "the," or the corresponding foreign articles), and a grouping at the end of the title alphabet of such titles as will not conveniently alphabetize (e. g., titles beginning with numerals, dates, etc.)

EXCEPTIONS.—(1) In the case of editions of classical music instead of scattering them under the titles, each author's works are brought together by an entry under the original composer's name, and for such works search should be made in this number under the following names: Auber (Daniel François Esprit); Bach (Johann Sebastian); Balfe (Michael William); Beethoven (Ludwig van); Bizet (Georges); Brahms (Johannes); Chaminade (Cécile Louise Stéphanie); Chopin (Frédéric François); Delibes (Clément Philibert Léo); Flotow (Friedrich von); Godard (Benjamin Louis Paul); Händel (Georg Friedrich); Haydn (Franz Josef); Leschetizky (Theodor); Liszt (Franz); MacDowell (Edward Alexander); Massenet (Jules Émile Frédéric); Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (Jacob Ludwig Felix); Meyerbeer (Giacomo); Moszkowski (Moritz); Mozart (Wolfgang Amadeus); Offenbach (Jacques); Puccini (Giacomo); Raff (Joseph Joachim); Rossini (Gioacchino Antonio); Rubinstein (Anton Gregorovitch); Saint-Saëns (Charles Camille); Schubert (Franz Peter); Schumann (Robert Alexander); Thomas (Charles Louis Ambroise); Tchaikowsky (Peter Iljitch); Wagner (Richard)

(2) COLLECTIONS having general titles, such as "Fünf studien," "12 études élémentaires," etc., and pieces published without individual identifying titles, but designating the class of musical work (e. g., "waltz," "dance," "march," "cantata," "schottische," "nocturne," "impromptu," "sonata," "étude," "study," "exercise," etc., without differentiating words and only identifiable by the name of the composer) are entered under the composer's name without cross reference from the titles and search should only be made under the names of the composers.

IMPRINTS.—As the publishers of musical compositions are generally also the claimants of copyright the imprint is omitted, but when the name and address of the publisher differ from those of the copyright proprietor, mention of the fact is made at the end of the title as an imprint giving place of publication and name of publisher.

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

Piano music is understood to be for two hands unless otherwise stated. Songs are understood to be with piano accompaniment unless otherwise stated. Titles reading "w" and "m" (signifying "words by" and "music by") are to be understood as songs.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright Office.

To save space in the Catalogue, the Copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "E," Class E, Musical compositions; "D," Class D, Dramatico-musical compositions; "©," implies copyright registration of a published composition, followed by date of publication; "© 1 c.," stands for copyright of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the printed or manuscript copy; and "2 c.," for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of contributions to periodicals only one copy of the issue or issues containing such contributions is required.

A list of copyright renewals made for musical compositions under section 24 of the act of March 4, 1909, will be found at the end of this issue immediately following the text.

A list of the musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions used or licensed to be used for the manufacture of parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work, recorded under section 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, follows the list of renewals.

The final number, completing the volume, is followed by a full annual index to both composers and proprietors. The subscription price for Part 3, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $1, payable in advance, to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE.

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is therefore hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that in so far as any copyright articles deposited from July 1, 1909, to June 30, 1914, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office, and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1923.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscript or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.

To secure such possible return the claimant of copyright of record should make formal request for the return of the articles, which must be separately and definitely specified. A suitable blank will be supplied on request. Address REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF MUSIC AGAINST UN-AUTHORIZED REPRODUCTION BY MECHANICAL, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

The United States now has reciprocal copyright protection for music against unauthorized reproduction by mechanical musical instruments in the case of Australia and the territories of Papua and Norfolk Island, Belgium, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, and Sweden. The President's proclamations to this effect were printed in the Catalogue of Copyright Entries, Part 3, vol. 6 (1911), pages v-x of no. 7, and pages iv-v of no. 12; vol. 10 (1915), pages viii-xi of no. 3, and pages viii-ix of no. 4; vol. 12 (1917), pages v-ix of no. 3; vol. 13 (1918), pages vi-xii of no. 5; vol. 15 (1920), pages v-vii of no. 3, and pages vi-xiv of no. 13; vol. 17 (1922), pages vii-xix of no. 6; and vol. 18 (1923), pages vi-vii of no. 3, and pages vi-viii of no. 8.

The copyright convention signed at the Fourth International American Conference at Buenos Aires on August 11, 1910, was proclaimed by the President of the United States on July 13, 1914. This convention is understood to be in effect as between the United States and Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, and Uruguay.

COPYRIGHT—CANADA

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas it is provided by the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1909, entitled "An Act to amend and consolidate the acts respecting copyright", that the copyright secured by the act, except the benefits under section 1 (e) thereof as to which special conditions are imposed, shall extend to the work of an author or proprietor who is a citizen or subject of a foreign state or nation, only upon certain conditions set forth in section 8 of the said act, to wit:

(a) When an alien author or proprietor shall be domiciled within the United States at the time of the first publication of his work; or

(b) When the foreign state or nation of which such author or proprietor is a citizen or subject grants, either by treaty, convention, agreement, or law, to citizens of the United States the benefit of copyright on substantially the same basis as to its own citizens, or copyright protection substantially equal to the protection secured to such foreign author under this act or by treaty; or when such foreign state or nation is a party to an international agreement which provides for reciprocity in the granting of copyright, by the terms of which agreement the United States may, at its pleasure, become a party thereto;

And whereas it is provided by section 1 (e) of the said act of Congress, approved March 4, 1909, that the provisions of the act "so far as they secure copyright controlling the parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work, shall include only compositions published and copyrighted after this act goes into effect, and shall not include the works of a foreign author or composer unless the foreign state or nation of which such author or composer is a citizen or subject grants, either by treaty, convention, agreement or law, to citizens of the United States similar rights";

And whereas the President is authorized by the said section 8 to determine by proclamation made from time to time the existence of the reciprocal conditions aforesaid, as the purposes of the act may require;

And whereas satisfactory official assurances have been received that the Minister of Trade and Commerce of Canada issued, pursuant to section 4 (2) of the Canadian copyright act assented to June 4, 1921, a certificate dated December 26, 1923, to become operative on January 1, 1924, declaring that for the purposes of the rights conferred by the said act, the United States shall be treated as if it were a country to which the act extends.

Now, therefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States of America, do declare and proclaim

That on and after January 1, 1924, the conditions specified in section 8 (b) and 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, will exist and be fulfilled in respect to the citizens of Canada and that on and after that date citizens of Canada will be entitled to all the benefits of the act of March 4, 1909, including section 1 (e) thereof and the acts amendatory of the said act.

Provided that the enjoyment by any work of the rights and benefits conferred by the act of March 4, 1909, and the acts amendatory thereof, shall be conditional upon compliance with the requirements and formalities prescribed with respect to such works by the copyright laws of the United States.

And provided further that the provisions of section 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, in so far as they secure copyright controlling the parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically musical works shall apply only to compositions published on or after January 1, 1924, and registered for copyright in the United States.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 27th day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-[SEAL.] three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-eighth.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

By the President:

CHARLES E. HUGHES,

Secretary of State.

CANADA

THE COPYRIGHT ACT, 1921

EXTENSION TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

I, Thomas Andrew Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce for the Dominion of Canada, do hereby certify pursuant to subsection 2 of section 4 of the copyright act, 1921, that the United States of America is a country which grants or has undertaken to grant either by treaty, convention, agreement or law, to citizens of Canada, the benefit of copyright on substantially the same basis as to its own citizens or copyright protection substantially equal to that conferred by the said act, and from the first day of January, 1924, the said country shall for the purpose of the rights conferred by the said act be treated as if it were a country to which the said act extends.

THOS. A. LOW.

CATALOGUE
COPYRIGHT ENTRIES

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY OF THE ACTS OF CONGRESS OF MARCH 3, 1891,
JUNE 30, 1906, AND MARCH 4, 1909

PART 3:
MUSICAL COMPOSITIONS

INCLUDING:
LIST OF COPYRIGHT RENEWALS
LIST OF NOTICES OF USER

1923
NEW SERIES, VOLUME 18
Nos. 9 and 10

The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 3, containing the entries for musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions, is issued at monthly intervals in twelve numbers each year, and is followed by a complete index for the year. The general arrangement is an alphabet of the titles of the musical works with certain exceptions explained hereafter. The arrangement is alphabetical under the first word of the title (except "a," "an," or "the," or the corresponding foreign articles), and a grouping at the end of the title alphabet of such titles as will not conveniently alphabetize (e. g., titles beginning with numerals, dates, etc.)

EXCEPTIONS.—(1) In the case of editions of classical music instead of scattering them under the titles, each author's works are brought together by an entry under the original composer's name, and for such works search should be made in this number under the following names: Bach (Johann Sebastian); Balfe (Michael William); Beethoven (Ludwig van); Berlioz (Hector Louis); Bizet (Georges); Brahms (Johannes); Chaminade (Cécile Louise Stéphanie); Chopin (Frédéric François); Delibes (Clément Philibert Leo); Godard (Benjamin Louis Paul); Gounod (Charles François); Händel (Georg Friedrich); Haydn (Franz Josef); Liszt (Franz); MacDowell (Edward Alexander); Massenet (Jules Emile Frédéric); Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (Jacob Ludwig Felix); Meyerbeer (Giacomo); Moszkowski (Moritz); Mozart (Wolfgang Amadeus); Rubinstein (Anton Gregorovitch); Saint-Saëns (Charles Camille); Scharwenka (Franz Xaver); Schubert (Franz Peter); Schumann (Robert Alexander); Thomas (Charles Louis Ambroise); Tschaikowsky (Peter Iljitch); Verdi (Giuseppe); Wagner (Richard)

(2) COLLECTIONS having general titles, such as "Fünf studien," "12 études élémentaires," etc., and pieces published without individual identifying titles, but designating the class of musical work (e. g., "waltz," "dance," "march," "cantata," "schottische," "nocturne," "impromptu," "sonata," "étude," "study," "exercise," etc., without differentiating words and only identifiable by the name of the composer) are entered under the composer's name without cross reference from the titles and search should only be made under the names of the composers.

IMPRINTS.—As the publishers of musical compositions are generally also the claimants of copyright the imprint is omitted, but when the name and address of the publisher differ from those of the copyright proprietor, mention of the fact is made at the end of the title as an imprint giving place of publication and name of publisher.

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

Piano music is understood to be for two hands unless otherwise stated. Songs are understood to be with piano accompaniment unless otherwise stated. Titles reading "w" and "m" (signifying "words by" and "music by") are to be understood as songs.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright Office.

To save space in the Catalogue, the Copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "E," Class E, Musical compositions; "D," class D, Dramatico-musical compositions; "©," implies copyright registration of a published composition, followed by date of publication; "© 1 c.," stands for copyright of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the printed or manuscript copy; and "2 c.," for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of contributions to periodicals only one copy of the issue or issues containing such contributions is required.

A list of copyright renewals and extensions made for musical compositions under section 24 of the act of March 4, 1909, will be found at the end of this issue immediately following the text.

A list of the musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions used or licensed to be used for the manufacture of parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work, recorded under section 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, follows the list of renewals.

The final number, completing the volume, is followed by a full annual index to both composers and proprietors. The subscription price for Part 3, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $1, payable in advance, to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE.

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is therefore hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that in so far as any copyright articles deposited from July 1, 1909, to June 30, 1914, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office, and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1923.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscripts or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.

To secure such possible return the claimant of copyright of record should make formal request for the return of the articles, which must be separately and definitely specified. A suitable blank will be supplied on request. Address REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF MUSIC AGAINST UN-AUTHORIZED REPRODUCTION BY MECHANICAL MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

The United States now has reciprocal copyright protection of music against unauthorized reproduction by mechanical musical instruments in the case of Australia, and the territories of Papua and Norfolk Island, Belgium, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, and Sweden. The President's proclamations to this effect were printed in the Catalogue of Copyright Entries. Part 3, vol. 6 (1911), pages v-x of no. 7, and pages iv-v of no. 12; vol. 10 (1915), pages viii-xi of no. 3, and pages viii-ix of no. 4; vol. 12 (1917), pages v-ix of no. 3; vol. 13 (1918), pages vi-xii of no. 5; vol. 15 (1920), pages v-vii of no. 3, and pages vi-xiv of no. 13; vol. 17 (1922), pages vii-xix of no. 6; and vol. 18 (1923), pages vi-vii of no. 3.

While no special proclamation has been issued on behalf of Hungary so far as the provisions of section 1 (e) are concerned, the proclamation dated October 15, 1912, putting into effect the convention between the United States and Hungary, specifically provides that the general copyright protection secured by article 1 includes the copyright control of mechanical musical reproductions.

From information received through the Department of State, the legislation of the following countries did not on the date stated fulfill the reciprocal conditions specified in the proviso to section 1 (e) of the act of Congress of March 4, 1909; Austria (Mar. 10, 1911), Mexico (May 8, 1911), the Netherlands (Mar. 3, 1911), and Switzerland (Apr. 8, 1911).

The copyright convention signed at the Fourth International American Conference at Buenos Aires on August 11, 1910, was proclaimed by the President of the United States on July 13, 1914. This convention is understood to be in effect as between the United States and Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, and Uruguay.

The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 3, containing the entries for musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions, is issued at monthly intervals in twelve numbers each year, and is followed by a complete index for the year. The general arrangement is an alphabet of the titles of the musical works with certain exceptions explained hereafter. The arrangement is alphabetical under the first word of the title (except "a," "an," or "the," or the corresponding foreign articles), and a grouping at the end of the title alphabet of such titles as will not conveniently alphabetize (e. g., titles beginning with numerals, dates, etc.).

EXCEPTIONS.—(1) In the case of editions of classical music instead of scattering them under the titles, each author's works are brought together by an entry under the original composer's name, and for such works search should be made in this number under the following names: Bach (Johann Sebastian); Balfe (Michael William); Beethoven (Ludwig van); Berlioz (Hector Louis); Bizet (Georges); Brahms (Johannes); Chaminade (Cécile Louise Stéphanie); Chopin (Frédéric François); Donizetti (Gaetano); Gluck (Christoph Wilibald von); Grieg (Edvard Hagerup); Händel (Georg Friedrich); Haydn (Franz Josef); Lalo (Edouard Victor Antoine); Liszt (Franz); Mascagni (Pietro); Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (Jacob Ludwig Felix); Meyerbeer (Giacomo); Moszkowski (Moritz); Mozart (Wolfgang Amadeus); Offenbach (Jacques); Palestrina (Giovanni Pierluigi Sante); Rossini (Gioacchino Antonio); Rubinstein (Anton Gregorovitch); Saint-Saëns (Charles Camille); Schubert (Franz Peter); Schumann (Robert Alexander); Strauss (Richard); Thomas (Charles Louis Ambroise); Tschaikowsky (Peter Iljitch); Verdi (Giuseppe); Wagner (Richard).

(2) COLLECTIONS having general titles, such as "Fünf studien," "12 études élémentaires," etc., and pieces published without individual identifying titles, but designating the class of musical work (e. g., "waltz," "dance," "march," "cantata," "schottische," "nocturne," "impromptu," "sonata," "étude," "study," "exercise," etc., without differentiating words and only identifiable by the name of the composer) are entered under the composer's name without cross reference from the titles and search should only be made under the names of the composers.

IMPRINTS.—As the publishers of musical compositions are generally also the claimants of copyright the imprint is omitted, but when the name and address of the publisher differ from those of the copyright proprietor, mention of the fact is made at the end of the title as an imprint giving place of publication and name of publisher.

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

Piano music is understood to be for two hands unless otherwise stated. Songs are understood to be with piano accompaniment unless otherwise stated. Titles reading "w" and "m" (signifying "words by" and "music by") are to be understood as songs.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright Office.

To save space in the Catalogue, the Copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "E," Class E, Musical compositions; "D," Class D, Dramatico-musical compositions; "©," implies copyright registration of a published composition, followed by date of publication; "© 1 c.," stands for copyright of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the printed or manuscript copy; and "2 c.," for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of contributions to periodicals only one copy of the issue or issues containing such contributions is required.

A list of the musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions used or licensed to be used for the manufacture of parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work, recorded under section 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, follows the list of renewals.

The final number, completing the volume, is followed by a full annual index to both composers and proprietors. The subscription price for Part 3, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $1, payable in advance, to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE.

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other government libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that in so far as any copyright articles deposited from July 1, 1909, to June 30, 1914, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1923.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscripts or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.

To secure such possible return the claimant of copyright of record should make formal request for the return of the articles, which must be separately and definitely specified. A suitable blank will be supplied on request. Address REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF MUSIC AGAINST UNAUTHORIZED REPRODUCTION BY MECHANICAL MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

The United States now has reciprocal copyright protection of music against unauthorized reproduction by mechanical musical instruments in the case of Australia, and the territories of Papua and Norfolk Island, Belgium, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, and Sweden. The President's proclamation to this effect were printed in the Catalogue of Copyright Entries, Part 3, vol. 6 (1911), pages v-x of no. 7, and pages iv-v of no. 12; vol. 10 (1915), pages viii-xi of no. 3, and pages viii-ix of no. 4; vol. 12 (1917), pages v-ix of no. 3; vol. 13 (1918), pages vi-xii of no. 5; vol. 15 (1920), pages v-vii of no. 3, and pages vi-xiv of no. 13; and vol. 17 (1922), pages vii-xix of no. 6; and vol. 18 (1923), pages vi-vii of no. 3.

The copyright convention signed at the Fourth International American Conference at Buenos Aires on August 11, 1910, was proclaimed by the President of the United States on July 13, 1914. This convention is understood to be in effect as between the United States and Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, and Uruguay.
